

Letters from the Past

If your younger self could see who you have become (you can choose any age), what would they be grateful for? Maybe you love yourself more today, maybe you have gained a skill or quality you lacked back then, or maybe you have done something they really wished they could do but couldn't at the time.

